THE WISDOM OF SOLOMON

Forgetful Brother

A brother was having a little trouble remembering his ritual charges, so he went to see his doctor for a check-up. The brother told the doctor that he seemed to be getting rather forgetful.

"I can never remember where I parked the car, or where I left my glasses. I forget everyone's birthdays, whether I've turned off the gas or what night I have to go to Lodge. But worst of all, I can't remember the ritual charges that I have been delivering for years. So I really need your help, Doc. What can I do?"

The doctor thought for a moment, then answered, "Pay me in advance."

A great meeting of The Scout Lodge of Mark Master Masons No. 1907 in Winslow, Bucks. We elected Trevor Brearley to be our next Master and heard about Scouting in Bucks.

We also launched our new Lodge Necker, which can be worn with a woggle in uniform or with a friendship knot (tied with my own hands) over a suit, over a Masonic collar or as a second uniform Necker. Available to members only.

Paul Kanikowski Took a group of Scouts from the 7th Nottm and 88th Nottm to UGLE while on a day trip to London as part of our weeklong summer camp to Tolmers Campsite.

They were genuinely interested and asked loads of questions
